The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Saturday laſt arrived here the Beulah, Captain Ritchie, from London, by whom we have the following Advices.

From the London Magazine for December, 1751.

HAGUE, Dec. 20. N. S.

THE States of Holland continue to deliberate upon the late Prince of Orange's Plan for re-eſtabliſhing Commerce; and that Affair is puſhed on with ſuch uncommon Vigour, that it will probably ſucceed, to the great Benefit of the Republick; and will facilitate the Renewal of the Treaty of Commerce with France, which the State has not been able to accompliſh, tho' great Pains have been taken in it ever ſince the Peace at Aix-la-Chapelle. Theſe Regulations will, 'tis alſo believed, be diſadvantageous to the Hamburghers, and to the new Company at Embden.

Paris, Dec. 17. N. S. The Parliament of Paris having retired to their ſeparate Apartments, and reſolved to do no Buſineſs, an Order from the King was on the 28th ult. delivered to every Counſellor, requiring them to aſſemble next Day in the Chambers they belonged to, and adminiſter Juſtice, on Pain of Diſobedience. Accordingly, on the 29th they aſſembled, but as none of the Advocates attended, on Pretence that they had not been ordered, no Buſineſs could be done. On the 1ſt Inſt. the Counſellors aſſembled again, but the Advocates ſtill refuſing to appear, a new Order from the King was delivered to the former, requiring them to adminiſter Juſtice, and to ſee that the Advocates and Attornies did their Duty, on Pain of his Majeſty's high Indignation; on which a Committee of Twelve were appointed to examine the King's juſſory Letters, and make their Report next Day, which they accordingly did, and thereupon there was a long Debate, but at laſt it was reſolved to obey his Majeſty's Orders; for if they had not, it was thought, they muſt have travelled, or perhaps the King would have put an End to their Being, and appointed a new Judicature. On the 12th the Deputies of the Parliament waited on his Majeſty at Verſailles, to acquaint him with their Obedience to his Orders, to which he anſwered, "My Parliament could not have been too expeditious in reſuming their Functions, ſince no Motive whatſoever can juſtify their interrupting them. I am fully ſenſible of the Importance of the Truſt committed to them, which is ſufficient to diſſipate their Fears. I expect that by their Submiſſion, their Attachment, and their Fidelity in my Service, they will continue to merit my Benevolence." His Majeſty has, however, ſhewed ſome Complaiſance on his Side; for as ſoon as the Parliament had obeyed, the Archbiſhop of Paris reſigned his Place of Adminiſtrator of the General Hoſpital of Paris, the Grant of which had occaſioned this Difference between his Majeſty and his Parliament; and his Majeſty has ſince reſtored the Adminiſtration of that Hoſpital to the great Council by Letters patent addreſſed to the Parliament, which they immediately ordered to be regiſtered. The Poor have by this Diſpute got ſome Advantage; for in order to gain a little Popularity, his Majeſty has ſuſpended the Tax on Bread and ſome other Sorts of Proviſions.—31ſt, A Project is under Conſideration, for eſtabliſhing in this City a Mount of Piety, or charitable Corporation, which is to lend to the Poor Sums under 12 Livres, without any Intereſt, and that Sum, or any above, at 7½ per Cent.—We have diſmal Accounts both from St. Domingo and Martinico of the Damage done by the Hurricane that happened at both in the Night between the 9th and 10th of Sept. laſt.

Madrid, Dec. 26. N. S. 'Tis ſaid, that our Court has actually received Advice, that the Iſland and Foreſs of St. Gabriel, or St. Sacrament, in the River La Plata, has been put into the Hands of the Spaniſh Troops, detached for that Purpoſe by the Governor of Buenos Ayres, in Conſequence of the Treaty made with the late King of Portugal; and they flatter themſelves that, by this Step, an End will be abſolutely put to the contraband Trade in that Part of the World.

[So far from the Magazine.]

Conſtantinople, Oct. 25. O S. Letters from Perſia inform us, that the Prince of Georgia continues to make a conſiderable Progreſs in that Kingdom, being already Maſter of the greateſt Part of the Province of Ghilan.

Peterſburgh, Nov. 8. O. S. Several People ſuſpected of holding an unlawful Correſpondence with foreign Countries have lately been publickly beheaded, and others have undergone the Puniſhment of the Knout, and been baniſhed into Siberia.

Leghorn, Nov. 15. O. S. The Emperor has ſent Orders to augment the Marine of this State, in Conſequence of which a new Man of War is going to be built at Porto Ferajo, which will make the fifth, of which the Navy of Tuſcany is compoſed

Stockholm, Nov. 17. O. S. Count Gyllenbourg, Marſhal of the Diet, is recovered from his late Indiſpoſition, and the Deliberations of the States, which had been thereby interrupted, begin again to go on in the ordinary Courſe. It is aſſured that the moſt important Affairs, which have been brought upon the Carpet there, are already regulated; inſomuch, that according to all Appearance, the Sittings of the Diet will end in January. This Diſpatch is a manifeſt Proof of the uncommon Union that prevails amongſt the States; ſuch a one as ſcarce ever was known.

Berlin, Nov. 26. O. S. The two Ships lately bought in England for the India Service, are now lading with all poſſible Expedition at Embden; the largeſt is called The King of Pruſſia, the other The Town of Embden.

Lyons, Nov. 28. O. S. The conſiderable Bankruptcies which have lately happened in different Places, have had a bad Influence upon our Commerce, which is far from being in ſo flouriſhing a Condition as it was before the late War. Notwithſtanding the great Abundance of Silk of various Sorts which were brought to the Fairs of Beaucaire and Alais, our Sattin and Taffety Manufactures languiſh for want of a ſufficient Number of Workmen; and we ſhall not, ere long, have the ſame Opportunity as heretofore, of diſpoſing of our Silks, brocaded with Gold and Silver, of which we us'd to ſend a Quantity into Spain, as well as into the Dominions of the ſame Monarchy in America, ſeeing the Manufactures which his Catholick Majeſty has eſtabliſhed there, will ſoon be in a Condition of furniſhing a ſufficient Quantity of other Goods, not only for the Uſe of his own Subjects, but for thoſe of the States in his Neighbourhood.

Paris Nov. 29. We hear from Rochelle, that Commiſſaries are arriv'd there with Orders to ſurvey that Port, in order to have it enlarged. Several Men of War and Frigates are alſo order'd to be built there.

Hamburgh, Dec. 3. O. S. It appears by Letters from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark does not approve of the Conduct of Col. Longueville, at St. Croix, in Africa, he having gone beyond his Orders; but it appears at the ſame time that his Daniſh Majeſty looks upon the ſeizing, by Order of the Emperor of Morocco, the Perſon of an Officer provided with credential Letters, and pillaging and treating as Enemies Merchants who depend upon the Honour of a People, as a manifeſt Violation of the Law of Nations.

Dreſden, Dec. 6. O. S. The Regency of Hamburgh having addreſſed his Majeſty to intercede with the King of Spain for the Revocation of the Decree, which prohibits the Trade of that City with the Dominions of his Catholick Majeſty, the King has wrote to his Miniſter at Madrid to interpoſe his good Offices, as far as from the Circumſtances of the Affair ſhould appear reaſonable. His Majeſty was very willing to do the Hamburghers this Piece of Service, upon Account of the Trade they carry on with this Electorate. 'Tis aſſured, that the Regency of Hamburgh, is abſolutely willing to renounce the Treaty concluded with the Algerines, and further engage not to conclude any for the future with the Regencies upon the Coaſt of Barbary: Orders have even been ſent to ſeveral Ports, at which the Hamburgh Ships ſent with Preſents to Algiers are to touch, not to proceed on their Voyage, but to return home as ſoon as poſſible; but 'tis feared theſe Orders are ſent too late.

Hague, Dec. 11. O. S. The Interment of the Stadtholder is fixt for the 4th of January, and all General Officers are ordered to repair hither, to aſſiſt, according to their Ranks, at the Ceremony.

Cadiz, Dec. 3. Commodore Stuart waits only for a favourable Wind, in order to put to Sea with his ſmall Squadron of Men of War, which have been here refitting. He is firſt to convoy the Ships bound to the South Sea, to a certain Latitude, and then go on a Cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary.

Paris A la-main, Dec. 31. Laſt Night, between Six and Seven, was play'd off the grand Firework in the Park of Verſailles, oppoſite the Gallery of the Caſtle of Verſailles. There was before and after, a Drawing-Room, and ſeveral Parties of Play in the Gallery, which was illuminated with a great Number of Chryſtal Branches and Girandoles, ornamented with Garlands of Flowers. His Majeſty having given Orders, that the Mob ſhould be let in during Supper, to have a Sight of the Fireworks and Drawing-Room, the Crowd was ſo great, eſpecially at the King's Apartment, that the upper Part of the Stairs leading to it, giving way, many fell down, and were much bruiſed.

Paris, December 27. According to a new Liſt of our Navy, it conſiſts of Five Eighty Gun Ships, Seventeen of Seventy-four Guns; Twenty-four of Sixty-four; Five of Fifty-four, three of Fifty, beſides Pinks, Ketches and Fire Ships.

The Charming Victoria, and the Perfect Union, are arrived at Rochelle from Canada, richly laden.

Madrid, Nov. 30. O. S. 'Tis aſſur'd, that at the Beginning of next Year ſeveral Edicts will be publiſhed, to oblige the Inhabitants of the Country to cultivate their Land better, in order to prevent the frequent Want of Corn to which the Kingdom is expoſed, which is leſs occaſioned by the Barrenneſs of the Ground than by the Idleneſs of the Peaſants.

Naples, Dec. 3. O. S. Though the Eruptions from Mount Veſuvius ſeem at preſent to ſubſide, we are not without Apprehenſions of their Return, from the great Quantity of Smoak which iſſues from the interior Part of the Mountain. The Damage which the neighbouring Villages have already ſuſtain'd by theſe Eruptions, is computed at 100,000 Ducats.

Florence, Dec. 7. O. S. The Count de Richcourt, Preſident of our Council of Regency, has received an Expreſs from Vienna, with Advice, that the Convention which has been ſome Time negociating at Madrid, was ſigned by the reſpective Miniſters; that by this Convention the Empreſs Queen has for ever renounced her reverſionary Right to the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia; in Return for which, his Catholick Majeſty has given up his Pretenſions to the Allodial Effects of Tuſcany; and that, in order to engage the King of Sardinia to accede to this Treaty, and renounce the Right which he has in Reverſion to Part of the Dutchy of Placentia, an Equivalent was to be given him on the Side of the Milaneze

Warſaw, Dec. 11. O. S. Count Roſomouſki, the new Grand General of the Ukrania, being deſirous of beginning his Adminiſtration by an Act of Clemency, ſet all the Priſoners under his Government at Liberty, who, inſtead of applying themſelves to ſome honeſt Employment to get a Living, have turn'd Robbers, and join'd the Haidamacks. A Party of theſe laſt of about 300, towards the latter End of laſt Month, enter'd and plunder'd the Town of Dowinogrodka, threatening Fire and Sword to thoſe who ſhould oppoſe them. They drove from this Town near 1000 Cattle, and carried off from thence a conſiderable Sum in ready Money, and Effects to a great Value.

There is a Talk of a Body of Poliſh Troops, which are to be joined by a Detachment of Ruſſians, taking the Field next Spring, in order to exterminate, if poſſible, theſe Robbers, and to that End to follow them into their moſt conceal'd Retreats.

Conſtantinople, Nov. 26. O. S. We have been (God be thanked) for ſome Weeks free from the Diſtemper; it ceaſed inſtantaneouſly; the Prieſts of the Frank Hoſpital, after performing a Quarantine, are returned to their Convents, and all Communication is re-opened. Smyrna, by all Advices, has been quite uninfected, and likewiſe Cyprus, Scanderoon and Aleppo, and all Parts of the Coaſt of Syria. Our Advices from Perſia inform us, that almoſt every Province of that Kingdom having a Schach, that Country continues in the utmoſt Confuſion.

Franckfort, Jan. 15. Our laſt Advices from Manheim inform us, that it appears to be actually determined, that the Elector Palatine will not go to Munich; upon which ſome People begin to ſuſpect the Election of a King of the Romans may poſſibly meet with more Oppoſition than is generally imagined.

Modena, Jan. 5 It is currently reported, and generally believed here, that the Negociation ſet on Foot between the Courts of Vienna, Madrid, London, and Turin, for ſecuring the Tranquility of Italy, meets with great Obſtructions.

Vienna, Dec. 25. O. S. The Empreſs has iſſued Orders for eſtabliſhing a Military School at Neuſtadt, on the ſame Plan as that which has been lately ſet up in France.

Leipſick, Jan. 1. O. S. Advice is ſaid to come from Dreſden, that his Poliſh Majeſty is relapſed into his late Indiſpoſition.

Madrid,

Madrid, Jan. 3. Though it has been reported that the Second of the two Algerine Men of War, mentioned in our former Advices, had alſo ſunk, few give Credit to it; for it is much more probable that ſhe has reached the Port of Algiers, as ſhe was ſeen on the 30th of November in the Morning ſteering for that Place under full Sail; and moreover, ſhe ſtood but one Broad-Side in the Engagement. The Arracz, or Commander of the Capitana, ſeeing himſelf thus deſerted, thought himſelf warranted to ſtrike, eſpecially as he had loſt his Fore-maſt and Mizen-maſt, and that the Main-ſail was cut, and the Poop ſhattered: But ſcarce had he ſtruck the Colours, when his firſt Lieutenant and another Renegado ran up to him like Tygers, upbraided him with Cowardice, and threatened to cut him in Pieces, and throw him overboard, if he did not hoiſt his Flag again, which he was forced to do, and continued the Fight two Days longer. The firſt Pilot of the Algerine, who was an Iriſh Renegado, ſeeing the Ship taken, and thinking he had no favourable Uſage to expect, plunged a large Knife into the Breaſt of a Spaniard who was going to fetter him, and then flung himſelf into the Sea.

We hear that a Banker of great Emmince in Madrid has lately fail'd; which muſt affect many People in different Parts of Europe.

Jan. 4. There is an Account from Rochelle, that the Squadron which ſailed from thence in July laſt, ſteered to the Eaſt-Indies, and that Tranſports were fitting out there to carry Troops and Handicrafts, to the Number of 1000 Men, in Order to repair the Damages which the French Company have ſuſtained in the Eaſt-Indies.

The Aſfaniſh, a Spaniſh Man of War, commanded by Commodore Stuart, has taken an Algerine of 50 Guns off Cape St. Vincent. There were two Algerine Veſſels in Company, but one eſcaped. She that was taken had 600 Men on board before the Engagement, and ſhe ſunk ſoon after ſhe was taken; but about 300 of the Crew were taken up by the Spaniſh Man of War. Among them is one Iſrael, who was firſt Lieutenant of the Algerine Ship; and, during the late War, was Captain of an Engliſh Privateer.

Jan. 6. Several Repairs are ordered to be made at Tilbury Fort, the Block-houſe at Dover, and ſeveral other Places.

Two Men of War fitting out at Chatham, are ordered to Portſmouth, to join ſome other Ships fitting out there.

Jan. 18. Monday Evening, ſeveral treaſonable Papers were put under Gentlemens Chambers in Gray's Inn and Lincoln's Inn.

The Lords of the Admiralty have put the Severn Man of War into Commiſſion.

A Bill is ordered into Parliament to prevent Thefts and Robberies, to regulate Places of publick Entertainment, and to puniſh Perſons keeping diſorderly Houſes.

His Majeſty has given an Order for a General Muſter to be made of all the Regiments of Horſe and Foot in England and Scotland.

Thurſday a Man genteelly dreſſed, was taken up in St. James's Park, for wearing in his Hat, and diſperſing ſeveral Papers, wherein was declared that the two Sons of the Pretender would ſoon murder or poiſon King George, and that it was no Secret to many at St. James's. He was conducted to the Guard Room by the Soldiers.

Jan. 21. According to the laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, Anarchy is encreaſed to ſuch a Degree in Perſia, that every Province has elected a Chief to govern it, without regarding the Authority of Shawrook, Shah, who keeps his Ground merely by the Licentiouſneſs he allows the Troops that adhere to him.

BOSTON, March 10.

By a Leteer from Halifax, dated the 21ſt of laſt Month, we learn, that 700 Germans are going to ſettle at Mallagaſh Harbour, 12 Leagues to the Weſtward of Halifax, early this Spring. It is alſo ſaid, that 700 Men will be put into the King's Works at Halifax ſometime this Month.

By Captain Smith from London, we have the ſorrowful News of the Death of that brave and active Officer, John Gorham, Eſq; Commander of an independent Company of Rangers at Nova-Scotia, who ſail'd from thence for England laſt Summer, and died about ten Days before Capt. Smith ſailed.

By a Letter from Capt. Macarty, late Maſter of the Brig. Lion, of this Port, dated in Liverpool December 10. 1751, we are inform'd, that on the 27*th of October laſt, four Days after he left this Harbour (bound for Barbados) in a Calm, the Veſſel ſprung a Leak, and in* 38 Hours was full of Water; that he then cut away her Maſts to prevent her overſetting, and continued on board for 21 Days, when he and his People were taken out by the Speedwell, John Thornton Maſter, from Virginia, and carried to Liverpool.

March 16. Laſt Friday Evening, between 8 and 9 a Clock, a Fire broke out in a long Row of old Warehouſes on a Wharff near the Draw-bridge, and was got to ſuch a Head before it was diſcover'd, that all Endeavours to extinguiſh it were in vain; ſo that in a very ſhort Time they were all conſum'd, and a Dwelling-houſe contiguous partly burnt, and partly pull'd down, ſo as to be render'd uſeleſs.

By Capt. Turner in 3 Days from Halifax, we have the melancholy News, that Capt. Sherburne, of this Town, who in a large Schooner, richly laden, ſail'd for Halifax a few Weeks ago, was caſt away on the firſt Inſtant, on an Iſland near Cape Sambrough, and the Veſſel and Cargo loſt. The People all eſcaped with their Lives, except a Negroe Man, who was drowned; but the Maſter having received much Hurt, died ſoon after he got on Shore. The reſt of the People having continued on the Iſland five or ſix Days, were taken off by a fiſhing Boat, and carried to Halifax.

NEW-YORK, March 23.

Extract of a Letter from Oſwego, dated February 22, 1752.

"This Day John Cadogan and Michael Finn, two Soldiers belonging to Capt. Rutherford's Company, who deſerted this Fort with eight more, the 22d of January laſt, returned here, and gave the following Account, viz. That they all travelled in Company ſeven or eight Days, towards a French Fort, called Caderaghway; and then William Burchell, the Drummer, David Ray, Timothy Sullivan and Edward Burns, were ſo much fatigued and Froſt-bitten, that they were unable to proceed: That William Barry, Corporal, James Read, Peter Egbergen and Mark Sampſon, together with the ſaid Cadogan and Finn, purſued their March another Day, when all their Proviſion was expended, whereupon Mark Sampſon was ordered by the Corporal to be ſhot, and only one Hour allowed him to prepare for Death; that then the Corporal obliged them to draw Lots who ſhould be Executioner; which fell upon James Read: The Execution being over, they eat, and took with them, the Hind Quarters only of the deceaſed, and continued their March four Days more; when the Corporal ordered Peter Egbergen to prepare for Death, giving him alſo but one Hour to prepare in; during which he held a Watch in his Hand, that he ſhould not exceed; and then he was ſhot as he was kneeling; they then eat and took with them the greateſt Part of his Body, and continued their March ſeven Days longer, when the Corporal ordered Cadogan and Finn to ſhoot James Read, but they refuſing, he took up his Firelock and perform'd the bloody Deed himſelf; and then the Body was cut in Pieces in the like Manner as the two others had been: The next Day, the Corporal deſpairing to reach Caderaghway, attempted to murder Finn, by ſtabbing him in the Thigh, and cutting his Head, his Gun having miſs'd Fire ſeveral Times, but by Cadogan's Aſſiſtance Finn got off; the Corporal and Cadogan then purſued their March another Day, and then turn'd back, and the next Day rejoined Finn; when the Corporal again made ſeveral Attempts to murder him, but was prevented by Cadogan, who gave the Corporal a Blow with an Ax; on which he made his Eſcape, leaving his Hat, Cap, and Bundle behind him, and deſtitute of Suſtenance, Arms, or Edge Tools, a Penknife excepted: Cadogan and Finn then continued their Retreat; the next Day the Corporal appeared behind them, and begg'd for ſome of their Fleſh; but upon Cadogan's preſenting his Firelock, he made off, and they ſaw him no more. On their Return, they obſerved a Place where a Fire had been made, and much Blood ſpilt; which they ſuppoſed to be an Encampment of the firſt four of their Party, left behind, and the Blood to be Sullivan's, as he was the weakeſt: The ſame Day they reach'd the Place where they left the four, and found the Drummer ſhot through the left Breaſt, and his Fleſh ſtripp'd, his Legs only excepted, which they took and eat: They ſuppoſed Ray killed the Drummer, becauſe there was a Difference betwixt them before the parting; he having charged Ray with taking him from a Garriſon where he was well treated:----They ſay that Reflection conſtantly run high among them, acknowledging they had no Reaſon to complain, as their commanding Officer had been very kind to them: Cadogan further declares, that when Egbergen was kill'd, the Corporal inſiſted that Finn ſhould die likewiſe, that they might encamp, and ſubſiſt on the Fleſh till they met with Indians, or the Winter broke up; the ſame was urged when Read was murdered; but Cadogan was favour'd becauſe he was an Axe-Man, and could cut Wood, and the Corporal would have ſtarv'd without him. They both appear like Skeletons; and think the Corporal muſt be ſtarv'd to Death, as well as Barnes and his Companion. This Account is taken verbally from them. John Coulſon was often wiſh'd for, by them, that they might roaſt him alive, as he had been the chief Inſtrument of all their Unhappineſs.

Capt. Bedlow, who is juſt arrived here in a Schooner, Capt. Myer, from Jamaica, informs us, That he ſpoke with the Indian King, Capt. Troup, of this Port, off the Eaſt End of Jamaica, from the Bay for London, who informed him, that two Days before they left Blewfield, a Schooner arrived there, with Advice, that the two Spaniſh Gallies, who lately attacked the Engliſh Ships in the Bay, were both loſt in a violent North Wind, and many of the Men drowned. He confirms the News of the Engliſh Ships leaving the Bay; ten Sail of which were arrived at Jamaica, and ſeveral others that had ſailed, and were juſt on ſailing for the Bay, had put back. Capt. Bedlow parted with the Indian King five Leagues North of Cape Nicholas, all well on board.

March 30. Capt. Redfield arrived here laſt Week, who in his Paſſage from North-Carolina to this Place, ſpoke with Capt. William Dodſworth, in the Ship Anne and Mary, from Portſmouth to Virginia, who informed him, that Capt. John Hewit, of Philadelphia, had five Men waſhed over-board and loſt, in his Paſſage from Carolina to Cowes.

Saturday laſt arrived here Capt. Lewis, in a Brig. from St. Thomas, by whom we learn, that the Sloop Floramel, Capt. Scot Lawrence of this Port, bound from Spaniſh Town to South-Carolina, is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Domingo.

A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,

WHEN I conſider that by our ſtrongeſt Sollicitations, and with great Difficulty, this and the Southern Colonies were ſaved out of the late Act of Parliament, "reſtraining the Northern Colonies from creating or re-emitting any Bills of Credit, except on ſudden and extraordinary Emergencies;" and that this Favour was ſhewn to us in particular by the Britiſh Parliament, upon Repreſentations made on our Behalf, that we had never exceeded the Bounds of Moderation with regard to the Quantities by us made; and that the laſt Emiſſion was of only the Sum of Eleven Thouſand, One Hundred, and Ten Pounds; I cannot think it adviſeable, at this Time, when thoſe Repreſentations are freſh in the Memory of that honourable Board, to whoſe Conſideration it is well known all our Laws are referred, to offer the Crown an Act of Aſſembly, not only for the Re-emitting our preſent Currency for a long Term of Years, but for a new Emiſſion of a larger Sum than was ever at one Time made in the Province; becauſe I am apprehenſive that ſuch a Conduct may probably ſubject us to the Diſpleaſure of his Majeſty, and the Britiſh Parliament, and thereby endanger our preſent Paper Money, or at leaſt render future Applications for additional Sums leſs effectual. For theſe Reaſons, I cannot give my Aſſent to the Bill before me for ſtriking Forty Thouſand Pounds, to be made current and emitted on Loan, and for re-emitting and continuing the Currency of the Bills of Credit of this Province.

March 6. 1752. JAMES HAMILTON.

A MESSAGE to the GOVERNOR from the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe the GOVERNOR,

As the Bill for ſtriking Forty Thouſand Pounds, &c. was agreed upon by the Houſe after long and very ſerious Deliberation, we were well aſſured that the Bill, as then ſent up to him, would have tended greatly to the Welfare of this Province, had the Governor been diſpoſed to paſs it.

But to obviate every Objection, and to demonſtrate how far we are from being deſirous of "exceeding the Bounds of Moderation," even at this Time, when our Gold and Silver is in a great Meaſure exported to Great-Britain, in Return for the Commodities received from thence, and our Trade really languiſhes for want of an Addition to our Paper Currency, we now preſent the Bill, with a Deduction from the Sum to be ſtruck, which we hope the Governor will find ſo much below what our Trade and Commerce, and the Intereſt of the Merchants and Manufacturers of Great-Britain trading to this Province require, that it cannot fail of meeting his Approbation.

We have examined the Votes of the Houſe of Commons for the laſt Year, and obſerve, with great Satisfaction, how tenderly and patiently they proceeded againſt the four "Northern Colonies," where the miſerable Condition of their Trade, and the Injuſtice done to the Widows and Orphans," as well as the Britiſh Merchants, from the exceſſive Emiſſions of their Bills of Credit, in Oppoſition to "ſome of the Deputies of the Aſſembly," and a great Number of Petitions from the moſt conſiderable Inhabitants of Rhode-Iſland, who repreſented thoſe Emiſſions as totally unneceſſary, and in which Reſpect wanted, might have induced that honourable Houſe to have acted with leſs Reſerve.

Before ſuch Judges, where the State of our Currency has been repeatedly called for and examined, we beg leave to aſſure the Governor we have no Apprehenſions of Danger, being well aſſured, that upon the ſevereſt Scrutiny it muſt appear to be the Advantage of the Trade of our Mother Country, in full Proportion to what we can expect or hope to reap among ourſelves.

By a Meſſage from the Governor to the Aſſembly in February 1748, we obſerve he hoped it would not be thought unreaſonable, if he took ſome Time to get the beſt Information to enable him to form a right Judgment upon the Bill for making current Twenty Thouſand Pounds then before him, and that the Delay might not be attended with any conſiderable Inconvenience to the People, as there was confeſſedly at that Time a greater Sum current [Gold and Silver included] than at any Time before. And again, on the 10th of Auguſt 1749, he judged it might be attended with very bad Conſequences to the Province to encreaſe the Quantity of our Currency, whilſt a Bill was depending in Parliament for reſtraining the iſſuing the Bills of Credit in the Colonies of America: To all which the then Aſſembly very prudently ſubmitted, and proceeded no further upon the Bill.

But at this Time, when thoſe Reaſons are anſwered by the great Exportation of our Gold and Silver, and when the Parliament, after ſo ſtrict an Enquiry, have not found Cauſe to include us in the Reſtrictions laid upon the Four Northern Colonies, we hope the Objection to a Re-emiſſion, which by this Bill is continued no longer than ſix Years beyond the Time limited by the Act in Force, can now have no Weight, when a further Addition, as appears clear to us, is become abſolutely neceſſary, there having been but an inconſiderable Sum added to our Paper Currency for theſe twenty Years paſt, tho', within that Time, the Number of our Inhabitants and our Trade are greatly increaſed; and therefore, upon reducing the Sum at preſent deſired ſo very low as we have now done, we truſt the Governor will readily oblige us and our Conſtituents, by giving his Aſſent to the Bill.

A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Reaſons offered in your Meſſage of the ſeventh Inſtant, for my paſſing the Bill to re-emit our current Paper Money, and ſtriking the additional Sum of Twenty Thouſand Pounds, I have peruſed, and conſidered with the Attention due to Matters of ſo great Importance. But as our preſent Bills of Credit will continue to be current for more than four Years, without any Diminution, and the Prices of our Export Commodities, in my Opinion, ſhew we are not in immediate Want of Money as a Medium of Commerce; making the beſt Judgment I am able of what has lately paſſed in England concerning Paper Currencies in America, I cannot ſee my paſſing the Bill in the Light the Aſſembly does, and therefore cannot give my Aſſent to it. It is no uncommon Thing for Men to differ in Sentiment: Whenever it happens between different Branches of a Legiſlature, each Part ſhould be guided by their own Underſtandings, and the Dictates of their own Conſciences. This Rule, I am perſwaded, you never ſwerved from, and therefore muſt the readier approve of my obſerving it.

March 10, 1752. JAMES HAMILTON.

In Aſſembly, the 11*th Day of the Month called* March, 1752. P. M.

The Houſe reſuming the Conſideration of the Governor's Meſſage, relating to the Bill for ſtriking Twenty Thouſand Pounds to be made current, and emitted on Loan within this Province; and for re-emitting and continuing the Currency of the Bills of Credit of this Province;

Ordered,

That Evan Morgan, Benjamin Franklin, Richard Walker, George Aſtbridge, James Wright, and John Wright, be a Committee to enquire into the State of our preſent Paper Currency, our Foreign and Domeſtick Trade, and the Number of People within this Province, and report thereon to the next Sitting of Aſſembly.

STOCKHOLM, December 20.

THOUGH all Affairs depending in the Dyet are tranſacted with the greateſt Diſpatch, Order and Unanimity, there is no Likelihood that this Aſſembly will break up before the Middle of next February, by Reaſon of the Variety of Buſineſs they are to go through. The Reſolutions already taken are kept ſo ſecret, that all we can ſay amounts to this, That in Conſequence of the Meaſures concerted between the King and the States, a good Harmony with Ruſſia may be reſtored, and the Diſputes about the Limits be adjuſted to the Satisfaction of both Parties; and that the antient Alliances between Sweden and divers Powers of Europe will be confirmed.

Madrid, Dec. 14. It has been reſolved to introduce among the Troops of this Kingdom the new Exerciſe adopted by the principal Powers of Europe; and to this End a Camp is to be formed in the Neighbourhood of this City next Spring.

In a few Days a grand Council will be held at Court, to conſider of a Memorial drawn up by ſome of the moſt eminent Merchants of this Kingdom, ſetting forth the great Advantages that would accrue to the Nation if Commerce was re-eſtabliſhed with the Dutch on the ſame Footing as it was carried on about fifty Years ago.

Turin, Dec. 18. The Marquis de la Chetardie, Ambaſſador from the French Court, had this Week a long Conference with the Chevalier Oſorio, Secretary of State, about the Convention negotiated at Madrid, for the Neutrality of Italy; but we cannot ſay whether it be true, as ſome pretend, that his Excellency has had Orders to make Repreſentations againſt certain Articles of that Convention. However it be, the Ambaſſador diſpatched a Courier to Paris at the Iſſue of that Conference.

Hague, Dec. 30. We are aſſured the States General have ſent Orders to Count Wartenſleben to ſet out from Bonn for Munich, and remain there while the Elector of Cologn ſtays at the ſaid Court. The Journey of that Prince to Munich, and the Elector Palatine and ſeveral other Princes alſo repairing to the Bavarian Court, confirms us in the Opinion that ſome Affairs of the greateſt Importance are to be canvaſſed there.

Duſſeldorp, Jan. 17. According to the laſt Advices from Vienna, the Council of War has ſent circular Letters to the Imperial Troops, enjoining them to be in Readineſs to be reviewed by the Commiſſaries in the Month of April next, and the Officers are charged to have their reſpective Corps complete by that Time. They talk of forming ſeveral Camps in the Spring in Hungary, Bohemia, and other Parts of the Auſtrian Dominions.

Thorn, Jan. 8. The Communities of Poland, Lithuania, and Poliſh Pruſſia, have ſent Deputies to the King of Sweden, to compliment him on his Acceſſion to the Throne, and beg the Favour of his Protection, in Imitation of his Predeceſſors, to the End that by the Interpoſition and Interceſſion of his Swediſh Majeſty, whenever a favourable Opportunity offers, they may be reſtored to their antient Privileges on the Footing of the Treaty of Olivia.

Madrid, Jan. 4. Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Ambaſſador, received a few Days ſince an Expreſs from his Court, with new Propoſitions, tending to accelerate the Concluſion of the Treaty on the Tapis for a free Navigation in the Weſt Indies, &c. His Excellency has had a Conference on this Subject with the King's Miniſters, and at the ſame time made Complaints about ſome Engliſh Ships being lately taken by our Guarda de la Coſtas. Upon which the Court has ſent freſh Orders to the Governors of his Majeſty's Ports in America, to take Care that nothing be done in Contravention to the Treaties ſubſiſting between Spain and Great Britain.——Conſidering what Difficulties our M——rs labour under in their Foreign N—g—t—ns, it is Charity to tranſlate the Puffs inſerted for them in the Dutch Gazettes.

Peterſburgh, Jan. 7. It is given out, that Matters ſtand between our Court and Sweden, on as good a Footing as can be deſired; and we are alſo told that there is no Room to doubt but that the Difficulties concerning the Limits of Finland, will be adjuſted to the Satisfaction of both Crowns. Nevertheleſs we find, that the Preparations for the Empreſs's Journey to Moſcow are again ſuſpended, and from thence are apt to preſume, that there is ſtill ſome Danger of a Rupture in the North, or in Germany.

Stockholm, Jan. 11. The States of the Kingdom are actually deliberating about the Number of Land Forces and Seamen to be kept up, but we do not yet know their Reſolutions. The King will certainly go over to Finland in April or May next.

Berlin, Jan. 22. The King has ſent new Inſtructions to his Miniſters at Vienna, and charged them in particular to renew their Sollicitations in favour of the oppreſſed Proteſtants of Hungary. By the laſt Poſt from London we learn, that the Engliſh Eaſt India Company are labouring to prevent Britiſh Subjects being concerned in any foreign India Companies, notwithſtanding which, if the Ships of the Embden Company touch at any of their Ports or Harbours in the Eaſt-Indies, thro' Streſs of Weather, or any other Accident, they muſt not refuſe them friendly Aſſiſtance.

Madrid Jan. 4. It is certain that our Court is bent on ruining the Algerines; for which Purpoſe a Squadron of nine Ships of the Line, with a great Number of Xebeques, will be ſent out next Spring, to block up the Port of Algiers, and cruize upon all the Pirates that may venture to appear in the Mediterranean; and whilſt we thus labour to deſtroy their Marine, or render it it useleſs, Preparations will be made at Oran to attack them by Land. All the Powers of Italy will be invited to ſecond our Naval Expedition. We depend upon the Pope, the Republick of Genoa, and the Order of Malta; but we dare not promiſe ourſelves Aſſiſtance from the Venetians, becauſe they have ſome Meaſures to keep with the Turk, on Account of the Situation of their Territories; nor do we build upon the King of the Two Sicilies, becauſe there is a Treaty of Commerce ſubſiſting between him and the Grand Signior, beſides that the Porte is engaged by Treaty to ſuccour the Regencies of Barbary, whenever they ſhall be attacked. However, we may do the Buſineſs well enough without them.

The Marquis de Vaulgrenant, the French Ambaſſador, has had during laſt Month many Conferences with the King's Miniſters, and as in that Time there has been much couriering between this City and Verſailles, we conclude that ſome important Affair is on the Tapis. It is certain that the new Treaty concerning the Affairs of Italy, the Articles of which have been ſettled ſince the Month of September laſt, will not be ſigned in Form till two principal Difficulties can be got over, which relate to the Caſe of the King of the Two Sicilies happening to come to the Throne of Spain, and the Infant Don Philip's removing to Naples

Utrecht, Jan. 28. The following Memorial was lately delivered at the Hague by the Britiſh Miniſter.

High and Mighty Lords,

The King has ordered me to inform your High Mightineſſes how fully his Majeſty is ſatisfied with the Puniſhments that have been inflicted at Batavia, on the Miſcreants that committed, ſome time ago, the horrid Murder of two China Veſſels, that were trading on the Coaſt of Sumatra with Paſſports of the Governor of Bencoolen.

The King being no Stranger, High and Mighty Lords, to the Juſtice and Equity of your High Mightineſſes, did all along expect that you would not deviate therefrom in a Caſe where Robbery and Murder called for an exemplary Puniſhment; and his Majeſty does not doubt but that in Conſequence of the ſame Equity, your High Mightineſſes will cauſe the two Veſſels, with all their Cargoes, to be reſtored to the lawful Owners, if ſuch Reſtitution be not already made.

His Majeſty has the more Reaſon to expect this, as your High Mightineſſes may be perſuaded, that if ever it ſhould unfortunately be the Caſe of the Eaſt India Company of theſe Provinces to meet with any Injuſtice or Violence from the Servants of the Engliſh India Company, his Majeſty will always be ready to give Orders for doing them Juſtice and giving them full Satisfaction.

Signed SOLOMON DAYROLLES

Whitehall, Dec. 10. Additional Article to the antient Treaties ſubſiſting between his Majeſty and the Dey and Government of Algiers, agreed to by the preſent Dey, Mahomet, and his Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries the Honourable Auguſtus Keppel, and Ambroſe Stanyford, Eſq; his Majeſty's Agent, and Conſul General at Algiers

"That all Packets or Expreſs Boats, bearing his Britannick Majeſty's Commiſſion, which ſhall be met by any of the Cruizers of Algiers, ſhall be treated with the ſame Reſpect as his Majeſty's Ships of War, and all due Reſpect ſhall be paid to his Majeſty's Commiſſion; and both at Meeting and Parting, they ſhall be treated as Friends: And if any of the Algerine Cruizers commit the leaſt Fault or Violence againſt them, the Captains or Raizes ſo offending, ſhall, on their Arrival at Algiers, and proper Complaint being made of them, be moſt ſeverely puniſhed, without admitting of their Excuſes. Dated at Algiers the 3d Day of June, 1751, and in the Year of Hageira, 1164, the 20th Day of the Moon Regil."

Dec. 20. A Tradeſman was committed to Bridewell for 390 blaſphemous Oaths, having no Money to pay the Penalty, which amounted to near 20 l. and not able to get Bail.

Dec. 21. Sunday died at Batterſea, in the 79th Year of his Age, Henry St. John, Eſq; commonly called Lord Bolingbroke—His Lordſhip having diſtinguiſhed himſelf early in the Houſe of Commons, was, ſoon after Queen Anne's Acceſſion to the Throne, made Secretary at War, which he reſigned in 1708, and two Years after was made Secretary of State, and one of the Privy Council: On July 7. 1712, the 11th of that Reign, was created Baron St. John of Lediard Tregoze, in the County of Wilts, and Viſcount Bolingbroke, in the County of Lincoln, with Remainder for want of Iſſue Male, to Sir. Henry St. John his Father, and the Heirs Male of his Body; alſo October 24, 1713, was conſtituted Lord Lieutenant of the County of Eſſex, but in 1714, firſt of George I. his Honours were forfeited by his Attainder, nevertheleſs he has been ſince reſtored in Blood, and came to England. His Lordſhip married to his firſt Wife, Frances, Daughter and Coheir to Sir Henry Winchcomb, of Bucklebury, in the County of Berks, Baronet; his ſecond Lady was a Foreigner, but ſhe died about two Years ſince, and left his Lordſhip without Iſſue.

His Lordſhip was well known in the Republick of Letters, and the Earl of Orrery, in his Life of Dean Swift, thus characterizes him as a Writer, 'Lord Bolingbroke had early made himſelf Maſter of Books and Men; but, in his firſt Career of Life, being immerſed at once in Buſineſs and Pleaſure, he ran through a Variety of Scenes in a ſurpriſing and excentric Manner. When his Paſſions ſubſided with Years and Diſappointments, and when he improved his rational Faculties by more grave Studies and Reflection, he ſhone out in his Retirement with a Luſtre peculiar to himſelf; though not ſeen by vulgar Eyes. The gay Stateſman was changed into a Philoſopher equal to any of the Sages of Antiquity. The Wiſdom of Socrates, the Dignity and Eaſe of Pliny, and the Wit of Horace, appeared in all his Writings and Converſation.'

Mr. Nathaniel Carrington, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers of State, having ſubſcribed for a Number of Tickets in the late Lottery, ſold them all to ſix, ſome Days before the Drawing; amongſt thoſe he ſold, one came up 10,000 l. bought for Mr. Croſts of Briſtol, another 5000 l. and of the ſix he ſtood, one came up 500 l. another 100 l. and a third 50 *l. Our Advices from Paris ſay, that the Germans are exceedingly alarmed on the King of Pruſſia's declaring, that he intends to raiſe five Squadrons of Huſſars for his Life-Guards.

It is ſaid his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry will accompany his Majeſty next Spring to Hanover, where his Highneſs is to reſide, in order to receive his Education.

Dec. 30. From Vienna we have Advice, that the two Magazines of Proviſions and warlike Stores lately erected at Peterwaradin in Hungary, have been burnt down to the Ground; but whether deſignedly or accidentally, the Government had not yet been able to diſcover.

They write from Paris, that the Lord Marſhal, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Pruſſia, continues to confer frequently with the French Miniſtry, and they will have it that there is a very important Negociation on the Tapis between the Courts of Verſailles and Berlin, relative to the Election of a King of the Romans. It is pretended that the Affairs of the Clergy have been adjuſted at a Council held at Verſailles a few Days ago in the King's Preſence. They alſo give us a Liſt of their Ships of War actually in Readineſs for Service, which they ſay is more authentick than any Liſt hitherto publiſhed, and by which it appears that it conſiſts of five Ships of 80 Guns, ſeventeen of 74, twenty-three of 64, five of 54, three of 50, two of 48, one of 44, nine of 30, five of 26, and two of 24 Guns each: Beſides fifteen Gallies in the Port of Marſeilles, all in good Order, and many Sloops, Fire-ſhips, and Bomb-ketches, &c.

By Letters from Aſtracan there is Advice, that the Sophi of Perſia being ſtartled at the conſiderable Progreſs made in the Province of Ghilan by Prince Heraclius of Georgia, aſſembled a powerful Army, and marched into that Province, where a bloody Battle has been fought, and the Army of Heraclius cut in in Pieces; by which deciſive Victory the Tranquility of Perſia is ſecured, and the Authority of the Sophi firmly eſtabliſhed.

Dec. 31. According to private Advices from Paris, the Commiſſaries that have been ſo long conferring together in that City about a new Regulation of Limits in America, have already made ſo ſurpriſing a Progreſs, that the Publick in general begin to be perſwaded the Affair will ere long be brought to a happy, tho' not a ſurpriſing Concluſion.

Jan. 2. From Vienna we have Advice, that a great Number of Manufacturers are arrived there from different Parts of Europe, to whom the Empreſs Queen has given all the Encouragement they could reaſonably deſire, engaging them in her Service for a certain Term, with a fixed Sallary; her Imperial Majeſty being reſolved to admit no foreign Manufactures in her Dominions, if the ſame Kind can be made at Home.—May Britain do the ſame with every Nation, whether Friend or Foe, that will not trade with her upon a broad Bottom.

They write from Copenhagen, that on Occaſion of the Death of the Queen of Denmark, his Daniſh Majeſty has iſſued an Edict, forbidding for a whole Year all Plays, Balls, Operas, Concertos, &c.—Heaven preſerve us from ſuch Mourning, which would ſend at leaſt Half of our gay polite Gentry to the Grave!

We hear from Ferrol in Galicia, that the Men of War actually on the Stocks in that Port were to be launched by the End of laſt Month, and that Orders were come down from Madrid to build ſeveral more.

Jan. 6. From Paris we hear, that the Memorial relating to Limits in North-America, which the French Commiſſaries lately ſent over to London, is returned with an Anſwer, and that an Expedient has been found to reconcile all Differences; that the Britiſh Embaſſador and Commiſſaries at Paris have received freſh Inſtructions to treat in Conformity to that Expedient, and that it is not doubted but France will readily cloſe with their Propoſals.

They write from Franckfort, that notwithſtanding all the Appearances of a laſting Peace, the Imperial and Pruſſian Officers are very buſy in that Part of the Empire, but the Pruſſians enliſt only the talleſt Men, and appear to be much better provided with each than the Auſtrians. The French alſo continue buying up Horſes in Germany, and within a Fortnight a good Number of fine grey Horſes paſſed by Franckfort, which are deſtined for remounting one of the Troops of the French King's Mouſquetairs.

Jan. 11. The following Obſervation was found in the Journal of a foreign Merchant: "The Children at Nuremburgh, ſaid he, are employed in making Toys, at the very Age that the Children in London ſpend their Time in breaking them." The firſt Price of the Toys is the Premium which the Nurembergers receive for promoting Induſtry ſo early, and which might remain here, if the Children of ſuch as have no Money to buy Toys were employ'd in making them for thoſe that have.

On Chriſtmas Day was drove on Shore, and wrecked in a Place called Cupboard, in Illuggan, in Cornwall, a Spaniſh Ship, about 200 Tons Burthen, laden with Logwood and Madeira Wine, with a large Quantity of Specie on board in Silver, great Part of which was taken up by the Country Fellows in the Neighbourhood, who demoliſhed the whole Ship in a few Hours, all the Men that belong'd to her being drowned.

We hear that the Herring Fiſhery Society are going to take Apprentices, who are to fiſh on board their Buſſes during the Summer Seaſon; and in the Winter be taught to braid Nets, and make Caſks, and thus be employ'd the whole Year round; which will be a great Saving to the Society. 'Tis ſaid that ſome of the Foundling Hoſpital Boys (who have been working nine Months at Herring Nets) will go on board the Buſſes next Summer.

Tueſday the Hon. Houſe of Commons came to a Reſolution to preſent an Addreſs of Condolance to his Majeſty, on Account of the Death of the Queen of Denmark.

Thurſday the Houſe of Peers ordered an Addreſs of Condolance on the Death of the Queen of Denmark; and afterwards adjourned till Monday next.

We hear there are Letters in Town which ſay poſitively, that the King of Pruſſia has had a Fit of the Apoplexy. If this be true, it may, in all Probability, give a ſurpriſing Turn to the political Affairs of Europe.

Jan. 18. We hear his Majeſty's Birth day will be kept on Monday the 10th of February; and that the Court will go into Second Mourning on Sunday the 9th.

We are aſſured, that the Herring Fiſhery Society will increaſe their Number of Buſſes conſiderably this Year; by which Means the Proprietors will be entitled to the 3 l. per Cent. Intereſt allowed by Parliament. The French and Dutch had near 10,000 Men fiſhing on our Coaſts laſt Seaſon (as is their annual Cuſtom) by which they gained large Sums, and greatly improved their Marine.

There will be no Pirates tried until the 18th of next Month, when the Trial of Capt. Lowry will come on, for inhumanly murdering one of his own Men, by whipping him to Death.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer to the Addreſs of Condolance of the Right Hon. the Houſe of Peers, preſented to him on Thurſday laſt, on the Death of the late Queen of Denmark, viz. "That he thanked the Houſe of Lords for "the kind Concern they had expreſſed for the great "Loſs which he had ſuſtained, and had the juſteſt "Senſe of this freſh Mark of their Zeal and Duty to "him, and of their Affections for his Family."

BOSTON, March 23.

We are informed, That a Schooner bound from Halifax to this Place, Daniel Smith Maſter, with 14 People on board, was blown off this Coaſt in the ſevere Weather we had laſt December, and were reduc'd to great Extremities, eſpecially for want of Proviſions, ſo that they fed upon the Fleſh of a Cat for 9 or 10 Days, and for 7 Days after, upon gnawing the Leather of a Pair of Breeches, and their Hunger increas'd to ſo great a Degree, that they drew Lots which one of them ſhould die to ſave the Lives of the reſt: But before they executed their Deſign, the Mate having Strength enough to get up a few Ratlins of the Shrouds, he ſpied thence diſcover'd Land, to their great Joy, which prov'd to be the Iſland of Nevis, where they arrived in a few Hours after.

Winſlow, who was the ſternmoſt Veſſel, not being able to clear the Race-Point, was put aſhore and bilged, but he and his Men happily ſav'd their Lives.---And by a Letter from Eaſtham, on Cape-Cod, we have an Account, that the Hull of a Veſſel, Bottom upwards, ſuppos'd to be a Brig, was come aſhore on the Back of the Cape, and at a conſiderable Diſtance from the Hull, her Deck, Maſts and Sails, with ſundry Sorts of Lumber, Oil, &c. were alſo come aſhore. The Account is very imperfect, but, by many Circumſtances, 'tis generally thought to be Capt. Hunnewell, and that he was overſet in the Storm.

On the SPRING.

Flowers appear on the Earth, the Time of the Singing of Birds is come, and the Voice of the Turtle is heard in our Land. CANTICLES 2.

HARK—how the Groves and Woods reſound
With Notes from every Tree,
The feather'd Songſters puff their Throats,
To chirp in Melody;
The Linnet, Thruſh and Nightingale,
Do now begin to Sing
With chearful Notes, and pleaſant Strains,
To welcome in the Spring.

This pregnant Time, with Beauty crown'd,
With Muſick's Science flow,
Inſpire my Quill with ſacred Mirth
In ev'ry Line to glow.
Now Flora now her Reign begins,
And gladdens ev'ry Plain,
The golden Scepter re-aſſumes,
To cheer the rural Swain.
The dreary Nature now revives,
And laughs in ev'ry Lawn,
To ſee cold Winter ſtep aſide,
And Spring begin to dawn.
The ample Fields their Garlands ſpread,
With Flow'rs of various Hue,
To ſhew kind Flora their Reſpect
In Tributes juſtly due.
The buzzing Bee, and frugal Ant,
With joy the News receive,
Are proud t' attend the joyful Pomp,

NAPLES, January 4.

THE Torrent of Fire, which for ſix Weeks paſt has flowed from Mount Veſuvius, did not ceaſe till laſt Night. It is hoped that it will ſoon entirely ceaſe: There never was ſuch a Quantity of liquid fiery Matter thrown from that Mountain in the ſame Space of Time ſince it ſubſiſted; the Naturaliſts therefore infer that it is diminiſhed, and that the Eruptions will never be ſo dangerous, or ſo frequent, as heretofore.

Genoa, Jan. 8. Letters from Marſeilles adviſe, that one of the principal Warehouſes of that City, filled with divers Sorts of foreign Merchandize, had been reduced to Aſhes; but by what Accident was not known. The Loſs ſuſtained by this Accident is ſaid to amount to 200,000 Livres.

Peterſburgh, Jan. 7. We have receiv'd Advice from Caſan, that the Miſſionaries that were ſent to Great Tartary had met with ſo much Succeſs, that it was computed they had chriſtened at leaſt a third Part of the Inhabitants of that extenſive Country.

Vienna, Jan. 15. The Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, being lately at Court, to congratulate her Imperial Majeſty upon her Recovery from her late Indiſpoſition, had a long Diſcourſe with her Imperial Majeſty, wherein ſhe told him, "That ſhe had heard with infinite Satisfaction, that the Adminiſtration of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante entirely anſwered the Expectation of the good Patriots, by the wiſe Maxims which that Princeſs had adopted for the Rule of her Conduct in the Government; and that as the good Underſtanding, Union, and Confidence, between the United Provinces and the antient Allies of the Republick, could not fail of being ſtrengthened upon ſuch Principles, ſhe ſhould be always earneſtly zealous of contributing all in her Power to the Proſperity of a State, in the Support of which all the well intentioned Powers had a common Intereſt." The Empreſs told this Miniſter, at the ſame time, that ſhe had ſent her dernier Orders to Bruſſels, for equitably regulating the Affairs which remain unſettled in the Low Countries, ſince the Concluſion of the Peace of Aix.

Hague, Jan. 12. They write from Mons, that at length all the Extortions and Oppreſſions of M. Secnelles, Intendant of Liſle, having been unveiled at the Court of France, this Man, who, it was generally believed, ſtood fair to become either Grand Chancellor, Comptroller General, or Secretary at War, is juſt fallen into high Diſgrace, and is turned out of all his Employments, and, perhaps, as is done moſt commonly in Turkey by the Captains Baſhaw, he will be made to diſgorge his ill-gotten Wealth. The Joy which is felt all over Flanders on this Occaſion, both by great and ſmall, is inexpreſſible.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, dated Jan. 10.

"The Parliament has at length, after making ſo much Noiſe, given way to the Court, but has had the Satisfaction to ſee the Archbiſhop obliged to give up the very profitable Adminiſtration of the General Hoſpital, and to have abſolutely nothing more to do with it. The King has conſtituted a particular Office for the Management thereof, of which M. d'Argenſon has the chief Direction. The Parliament has, nevertheleſs, been extremely piqued at being obliged to regiſter whatever the Court requires, and at their Minutes being detained: They have therefore, in regard to the laſt Article, forbidden them, for the future, to be ever ſhewn to any Body, and have ſent a Deputation to the King, to make Repreſentations to his Majeſty upon this Subject. People are very deſirous of knowing how the Court will take this Reſolution of the Parliament; but as that Body has ſubmitted, 'tis thought the Miniſtry will content themſelves with ſuch Submiſſion, and not widen the Breach, which they are now rather inclined to heal. If they had acted with the ſame Reſolution in regard to the Affairs of the Clergy, it is not doubted, but that they would have as effectually gained their Point with that powerful Body. The Copies of a Book, intituled, The Hiſtory or Life of Lewis XV. with Anecdotes of moſt Things that have paſſed at Court, to the Year 1751, have been lately ſeiz'd upon. It is ſaid, that this Treatiſe is very intereſting."

Paris, Jan. 24. Letters from Genoa adviſe, that the Fund call'd, The Mount of Conſervation, has produced 300,000 Actions, which, at 200 Livres each, make 60 Millions, half of which will be paid in the Month of January. The ſame will be done every Year; by Means whereof it is pretended, that in 35 or 36 Years the old Bills of the Bank of St. George will be abſorbed, of which there ſtill remains in the Publick a great Number that go at half Value. A new Regulation is publiſhed relating to the Free Port.

Vienna, Jan. 15. Upon the Repreſentations made to the Empreſs, that the Humour of planting Vineyards was increaſing to ſuch a Degree in the Archdutchy of Auſtria, that in the midſt of Plenty of Wine we are in Danger of wanting Bread, her Imperial Majeſty has order'd the Vines to be grubb'd up in certain Diſtricts, where it will turn to better Account to ſow Corn. They talk at Court of making ſeveral new Regulations for the better Government of this Capital. Among other Things, all Penthouſes over Shops are to be pulled down, as they ſerve to darken them, and conceal the Defects in Goods. An Edict is likewiſe to be publiſhed, for reſtraining the Luxury of the Citizens in Dreſs, Houſhold Furniture and Jewels; and as great Frauds are frequently committed by falſe Weights and ſcanty Meaſures, a kind of Commiſſion or Queſt is to be eſtabliſhed for overſeeing the ſame; which Queſtmen are not to walk about in State at ſet Times of the Year, in Gowns, or any particular Habit, to give the Alarm to the fraudulent Dealers, and ſo make them ſecrete their falſe Weights, but will come upon them unawares at any Hour of the Day, and any Time of the Year. We are likewiſe to have a new Law for the better preventing fraudulent Bankruptcies.

Berwick, Nov. 15. We hear that a Pink, a Bilander, and a Brigantine, were all ſeen periſhing on Sunday Morning off Dunſtanborough, without any Poſſibility of Aſſiſtance; and that on Thurſday laſt a ſmall Sloop, laden with Bottles, from Newcaſtle to Leith, was caſt away at Spittle, and one of the Crew loſt.

Newcaſtle, Jan. 8. On Friday ſe'nnight, a hard Gale coming on at E. N. E. ten out of fourteen Sail of Ships, which came out of Whitby, were put on Shore near Sunderland. On Saturday, about Eleven a Clock in the Forenoon, came alſo aſhore at the ſame Place, a Brig belonging to Haſtings, as did on Sunday a Collier belonging to Scarborough.

The ſame Evening came aſhore upon Hartley Rocks, a Brigantine about 90 Tons Burthen, laden with Oats. It is ſuppoſed all the Men periſhed, only one being yet found, who was laſh'd to the Mainmaſt. We cannot learn from whence ſhe came, or where bound, only imagine ſhe belongs to Scotland, there being wrote on the Head of the Mainſail, David Daſſe and Company, in North Leith.

Laſt Week died, at Seafield, near Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Mr. Henry Townſon, and Bridget his Wife, aged 100 Years each; who after living in conjugal Affection nigh 70 Years, and enjoying a perfect State of Health till almoſt the laſt, expired within a few Minutes of each other.

LONDON, January 11.

We are indebted to the Dutch Gazettes for the following Intelligence, dated London, Jan. 4. N. S.

"The Affair of the Reſtitution of, or Indemnification for, the Prizes illegally made by the Subjects of Spain and England, actually occupies the two Courts. The latter claims 100,000 l. to indemnify the Owners of the Ships taken by the Spaniſh Privateers and Guarda de la Coſtas in America. But as the Court of Madrid claims the Conqueſtador Man of War, and ſome other Ships belonging to his Catholick Majeſty's Subjects, which the Engliſh proviſionally detain, the Government has ſent proper Inſtructions to Mr. Keene for terminating this Affair as ſoon as poſſible, in order to terminate afterwards the Treaty on the Tapis for the free Navigation of the Engliſh in the Weſt-Indies."—

"The Directors of the Eaſt-India Company (ſay the ſame Gazettes) have preſented a Petition to the King, humbly praying his Majeſty not to conſent to the King of Pruſſia's Demand for admitting the Ships of the new Aſiatick Company into our Ports and Harbours in the Eaſt-Indies. At the ſame time they beſeech his Majeſty to take the moſt effectual Methods to hinder his Subjects from trading with, or engaging in the Service of the ſaid Company, as it is forbidden by Acts of Parliament, and that the Law of Nations warrants ſuch Prohibitions.

His Majeſty, being ever attentive and ready to maintain the Rights and Privileges of his Subjects, eſpecially when the Commerce of his Kingdom is intereſted therein, has not heſitated to give a gracious and favourable Anſwer to this Petition, and to order that an Extract be forthwith publiſhed of the Acts of Parliament, whereby his Subjects are forbid, under ſevere Penalties, to engage in the Service of any foreign Eaſt-India Companies."

Some Queries humbly offered to the Conſideration of all true Patriots.

1. If G—m—g be deſtructive of the publick Peace and Welfare, as being conducive to the Perverſion of Mens Morals, may it not be ſuppoſed to be generally as pernicious to People in high as in low Stations, ſome Allowance being made for the Difference of Fortune and Education?

2. If a Man in low Life loſes his All at Play; the common Reſource is to break open a Houſe, or collect a Supply on the Highway, and ſo get the Law to hang him, if he is not in a Mood melancholy enough to hang himſelf; but thoſe in more exalted Stations have generally better Reſources after an ill Run; they may mortgage or ſell Part of their Eſtate, or patch up their broken Fortune with a P—ce or a P—n, on very honourable Terms, and for reputable Services, ſuch as are every Way becoming a G—ſt—r. Or they need but let their honeſt Creditors pine away, and break for want of their juſt Demands, or go and hang themſelves, if they have not Patience to wait for their Money. But by which of the two Civil Societies ſuffers moſt, ſeems to be a moot Point. Therefore,

3. Whether, in order to ſuppreſs G—m—g effectually, it would not be proper to make it diſgraceful and diſhonourable to pay what is falſely called a D—t of Honour?

4. Whether it would not be expedient to include under the Denomination of G--m--g, all Wagers and Betts at Horſe Races, Cock Matches, Boxing Matches, &c.

5. If G—m—g be in itſelf immoral, or productive of Immoralities, and the greateſt Crimes, and if bad Example has a great Sway over the Generality of Mankind, would it be proper to allow that in one Subject, which may enſnare another to his Ruin?

6. If Riches and Dignities be no abſolute Security againſt being led into Evil, can any good Reaſon be aſſigned why, in this Caſe, the Prohibition ought not to be general, and the Penalties ſo continued as may beſt deter all Ranks and Conditions from offending?

Jan. 21. Commodore Cotes is appointed Captain of the Wager Man of War, and Commander of a Squadron of Men of War, which are to ſail to the Weſt-Indies to relieve Commodore Townſend.

Jan. 22. We hear that the Truſtees for the Colony of Georgia, will ſpeedily aſſign over their Property to his Majeſty.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, dated January 28. N. S.

"According to the laſt Advices from the Empire, it ſeems to be at leaſt doubtful, whether the important Point of the Election of a King of the Romans can be carried this Year, without endangering the Tranquility of the Germanick Body. However this may be, it is certain the Court of Vienna has taken a right Step towards ſounding the Diſpoſitions of the Members of the Empire, in bringing again on the Tapis a Propoſition made to the Dyet in 1746, for ſecuring the Tranquility of Germany, by a general Concurrence of the Princes and States thereof in ſuch Meaſures as may beſt anſwer that Purpoſe. The Propoſition is indeed couched in vague Terms, ſo that we can't yet diſcover what is really deſigned by it; nevertheleſs, it may be made ſubſervient to the diſcerning of Friends from Foes; and then, according as Numbers may ſtand on both Sides, the Election of a King of the Romans will be brought on the Tapis. In the mean Time, the Friends of the Common Cauſe have the Mortification to ſee the Court of Berlin renewing its Inſtances in favour of the Proteſtants of Hungary; becauſe this either ſuppoſes ſome Injuſtice on the Part of our auguſt Ally, or may be conſtituted as a Deſign in the other Party to pick a Quarrel, under the ſpecious Pretext of Humanity and Religion."

Jan. 23. We are informed there will be no State-Lottery this Year, but that there is a Lottery talk'd of for raiſing a conſiderable Sum of Money to be applied towards diſcharging the ſeveral miſerable Creatures who now lie confined in Goal for ſmall Debts, Fees, &c. and paying half the reſpective Debts, on their Diſcharge, to their Creditors. Which, 'tis reckon'd, will be a more national Concern than the Charitable Corporation, or even the Weſtminſter Bridge-Lotteries; as ſo many Objects, now idle and burdenſome to themſelves and the Publick, may by this Means become uſeful Members to the Society, and their Creditors be better ſatisfied than they ever expected.

From the HALIFAX GAZETTE, March 23, 1752.

By our laſt Advices from Chignecto, the Commander of his Majeſty's Forces, Capt. Collier, of Laſcelles's Regiment, died there the Beginning of this Month.

We have alſo an Account from thence of the Death of Monſieur La Jonquier, late Intendant-General of New France, in an advanced Age, at Quebec. He was reputed an experienced Sea Officer, and was an Admiral commanding the French Fleet, taken by Lord Anſon, and Sir Peter Warren, in 1747, and remained ſome Time a Priſoner in England.

The Winter paſt has proved the ſevereſt, and the Froſt the moſt intenſe that hath ever been known to the oldeſt Inhabitants in the Province: Notwithſtanding which we have the Pleaſure of aſſuring the Publick, that this Harbour hath not been froze up, or encumbered ſo much with Ice, as to interrupt its Navigation.

On the 3d of this Month the Inferior Court of Common Pleas for this Province was opened, and held here by a new Commiſſion, wherein Charles Morris, Eſq; is appointed firſt Juſtice.

BOSTON, April 6.

Upon Conſideration that a great Number of the Inhabitants of this Town are lately removed into the Country, and many others confined by Sickneſs, ſo that upon the breaking out of Fire, ſufficient Help may be wanted to extinguiſh it; the remaining Inhabitants are therefore deſired to be more than ordinary careful to keep their Chimnies clean, and to ſee that their Fires are ſafely put out at Night, for their own Sakes, as well as their Neighbours.

By a Veſſel from Malaga, in Spain, we have Advice, that there had been very tempeſtuous Weather the laſt Winter, by which abundance of Veſſels had ſuffered Damage: That in the Harbour of Cadiz only, no leſs than ſeventeen Veſſels were loſt, beſides many others drove on Shore. That a Dutch Man of War was forced aſhore near Ceuta, on the Barbary Shore, and all the Men made Slaves. And, that a Spaniſh Galleon coming into the Bay of Cadiz, with three Millions of Dollars on board, was caſt away, and all the Men drowned.

NEW-YORK, April 13.

The Ship Indian King, Capt. Troup, of this Port, bound from the Bay for London, was coming through the Windward Paſſage, about the End of laſt February, when the Captain finding himſelf extremely ill, and no Doctor on board, and his Veſſel having received ſome Damage, he put back to Jamaica, where, three Days after their Arrival, Capt. Troup died; and Capt. Smith, late of a New-York Sloop, being then there, the Charge of the Ship was given him, and he arrived with her Yeſterday Morning, at Sandy-Hook. About ſix Days ago, they met with a violent Gale of Wind, which obliged them to throw ſome of their Guns overboard.---Capt. Troup was a Man of an excellent Temper, kind, affable, and brave; he was Commander of a Privateer during the late War, where he often ſignalized himſelf; as he alſo did lately in the Bay; and his Death is juſtly lamented by all that knew him.

We farther hear, that Capt. Smith, having ſome Time before been with a Flag of Truce to St. Domingo, found there a great Number of Engliſh Priſoners, which had been taken and brought in at ſundry Times; he, on his Return to Jamaica, gave an Account thereof to the Commodore of the Engliſh Ships at Jamaica, who thereupon immediately ordered four Engliſh Men of War to ſail for St. Domingo, to demand them.

Further, if the ice, or any thing elſe, ſhould at any time prevent the paſſage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the ſtage waggon will, if requir'd, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry. On LIGHT.

——per noctem plurima volvens,
Ut, primum, lux alma data eſt exire, locoſque
Explorare novos. VIRG.

'TIS not yet Day, and ſure it muſt be nigh,
The ſlumb'ring World will ſoon awake:
Is there no friendly Light t' adorn the Sky?
And ſullen Horror from the Night to take?
'Tis gloomy dark;—all Nature lies obſcur'd;
Nor Field nor Mountain now is ſeen;
Left is the gay enamell'd Green,
That Yeſterday the Sight allur'd.
Where is the River's winding Maze,
That us'd to gladden yon fair Vale?
Hark to its Murmur!—ſtill it ſtrays,
And can, at leaſt, the Ear regale:
Oh! 'tis hid by Night's thick Shade,
All the chearful Haunts of Men
By a Chaos overſpread;
Dark Darkneſs makes the World its Den,
And ſeems to have reſum'd its antient Reign.
Yet look a While intent towards the Eaſt;
Doſt thou not view ſome Streaks of Light?
Doſt thou not ſee what gives thee Sight?
And ſhews th' appearing World again releaſt.
Offspring of Heav'n! Celeſtial Dawn!
Again reviſit'ſt thou mine Eyes!
Night's ſable Curtain is withdrawn,
And a new Luſtre clothes the Skies,
Fields, and Woods, and Flocks again ſurprize;
A new Creation riſes to the View,
And Man goes forth his Labours to renew. (a)
But ſee! the greater Light appears!
And with a nobler Luſtre chears!
The-winged Choriſters rejoice
To welcome the returning Day,
And with a ſweet and grateful Voice,
Salute the beneficial Ray;
And ſhall the Sons of Men behold
The radiant Lamp its Beams unfold,
The mighty Maker's Praiſe untold!
For this their Form and Hope divinely giv'n? (b)
For this ordain'd to look tow'rds, and for, Heav'n!
Thou, that with ſuch abundant Brightneſs crown'd,
Cam'ſt forth jocund to run thy daily Race,
Why doſt thou never vary from thy Bound! (c)
Or deviate in th' Immenſity of Space!
What Skill ſupreme the certain Path approv'd,
And bid thee not approach too nigh,
Nor, in retiring, be too far remov'd,
Leſt the depending World ſhould die,
Left frozen up with Cold it ſhould become,
Or torrid Rays anticipate its Doom?
That Voice Divine, which ſays to the proud Sea,
Here, and no further, come your ſwelling Rage;
That potent Voice, which furious Winds obey,
Which can call forth the Storm, and can aſſwage;
That Voice which, when the World in Darkneſs lay,
Let there be Light, ordain'd, and there was Light;
Which made Confuſion ſubject to its Sway,
And overthrew the Empire of old Night:
That mighty Voice prefix'd the conſtant Way,
And ſpoke thy Courſe, from which thou ſhouldſt not ſtray.
Thou alſo mad'ſt the Night, and thou the Day, (d)
Maker Omnipotent! at thy Command
The Sun ſhone forth with an illuſtrious Ray,
And bears the Marks of an omnific Hand:
So many Ages has he ſhone, and, ſtill,
Shines with an equal Strength, for ſuch thy Will.
Indulgent to the Earth, with genial Beams,
To warm the cheriſh'd Globe his Affluence ſtreams.

O thou who dwell'ſt in uncreated Light,
Source of Effulgence! and didſt ever dwell,
Too great thy Splendor's for a Mortal's Sight
To ſee, or for a Mortal's Tongue to tell.
When to created Things ſuch Beauty's giv'n, (e)
Thy Bounty, and thy Pow'r, which will make known,
What Radiance ſhines throughout the Courts of Heav'n!
What dazzling Glories muſt ſurround thy Throne!
Now the Sun ſhineth not——O far outſhone! (f)

(a) This is from a Verſe in one of the Pſalms.
(b) This alludes to the Line often quoted,
Os homini ſublime dedit, cœlumque tueri
Juſſit——
Man of ſublimer Aſpect who partook;
The mighty Former bid tow'rds Heav'n to look.
(c) The Writer here had in View the good Archbiſhop of Cambray, in his Book of the Exiſtence of the Divinity, ſpeaking of the Sun,——What reſtrains his Courſe? Why does he never launch out into thoſe vaſt Spaces that environ him?——The Words are to this effect;——they are here quoted from Memory.——
(d) This Line is from Milton.

(e) There is ſomething not unlike to this in Part of a Spaniſh Sonnet; quoted by Gracian with Commendation.

Si, aqui, dixo, en el yermo deſta vida,
Tanto una Roſa, un Ruy Senor eleva,
Tan grande es ſu belleza, y ſu dulcura,
Qual ſera la floreſta prometida!
O dulce melodia ſiempre nueva!
O ſiempre floridiſſima hermoſura!

It was written on hearing a Nightingle ſinging by the Side of a Roſe, and may be thus rendered:

If, in theſe Wilds of Life, ſuch Sweets a Roſe,
Such rapt'rous Notes a Nightingle beſtows;
If, here a Scene ſo lovely can ariſe,
What then ſhall be the promis'd Paradiſe!
What Harmony ſhall in thoſe Shades reſound!
What Beauty and what Fragrance breathe around!

'Tis ſo ſeldom that we meet with Quotations from the Spaniſh Writers (tho ſome of them deſerve better) that it is hoped the Length of this will be excuſable.

(f) This is taken from a ſublime Expreſſion in one of the Prophets——He looketh to the Sun, and it ſhineth not.

Peſt in HUNGARY, December 12.

AT all Times the Jews have been hated in this Kingdom, by the Populace; but more in this Town than elſewhere, as the Roman Catholick is the only Religion publickly exerciſed here. As this Hatred expoſed them to continual Inſults, the Magiſtrates were obliged to take them under their ſpecial Protection, and decree ſevere Penalties againſt any that ſhould injure them, in any Shape whatever. Theſe Orders were renewed about three Years ago, but within theſe few Months the Mob have begun to pay no Reſpect thereto, and let ſlip no Opportunity to moleſt the Jews. Their Inſults were not confined to the poor, ragged, deſpicable Iſraelites, but reached alſo the moſt opulent; inſomuch, that a rich Trader, thinking himſelf and his Servants were in Danger, had Recourſe to the Civil Magiſtrate, for a more ample Protection; which was granted him, but attended with very ſad Conſequences; for on the 21ſt of laſt Month, at five in the Evening, one of this Jew's Domeſticks being inſulted in the Street by a Chimney-Sweeper, the Magiſtrate's Officers fell upon the Raſcal, and drubbed him ſoundly; but as they did not ſecure and commit him to Priſon, he afterwards ran about the adjacent Streets, imploring the Aſſiſtance of all zealous Chriſtians: Upon which the Mob immediately aſſembled, and ſurrounded the Houſe of the Jew Merchant, the grand Guard of the City not being able to prevent them. Their firſt Exploit was breaking all the Windows, with a Volley of Stones; after which they forced open the Door, beat and abuſed the Merchant and his Wife, who are both pretty far advanced in Years, plundered the Houſe thoroughly, and tore all his Books and Papers. This being over, they were preparing to play the ſame Pranks at the Houſes of other Jews, when the Governor ſent a Detachment of Soldiers, to keep the Peace; who fired upon the Rioters, and diſperſed them. Some of them were taken in their Beds the ſame Night, and committed to Priſon.

LONDON, January 9.

An Extract of a Letter from Utrecht, dated January 1.

"The Electoral Court of Cologne is, at length, ſet out for Munich; every Thing is on that Account in the more melancholy Situation at Bonn, as the Inhabitants of that City can but very indifferently, if at all, ſubſiſt without its Preſence; ſeveral creditable Tradeſmen have already withdrawn themſelves in order to go and ſettle elſewhere, having no Proſpect of gaining a Livelihood by a Court which very ſeldom reſides there, and which, according to all Appearance, will continue to travel from one Place to another ſo long as the Elector ſhall live and continue in Health, which probably will not be many Years, ſeeing that Prince is greatly aged, inſomuch, that thoſe People who have not ſeen him this laſt eight or ten Years would not now know him. The Oeconomy of his Houſhold likewiſe is very much changed; his Court is no longer the ſame where Benefactions uſed to be diſperſed with Profuſion; but there is now nothing more of that, excepting among Muſicians and Players, who entirely engroſs the Favour and Expence of his Serene Electoral Highneſs, which increaſes for, and is made upon them every Day more than others. It is now no more the ſplendid, nor political Court, it once was thought to be. One may reſt aſſured, that France holds it in Bands ſo firm, that neither the Elector's Journey to Munich, nor any other Meaſure that has been taken to bring him into the ſalutary Views of the Court of Great Britain, can yet make him change his Sentiments. If, ſays a Perſon in a ſenſible Letter from Cologne, the Elector ſuffers himſelf to be perſuaded to make the Tour of Munich, it is as well from the Averſion which he has for his Reſidence at Bonn, as from the Pleaſures which he will enjoy, in once again viſiting the Territories of his Anceſtors, for which he has always expreſſed a ſtrong Affection. Another Reaſon, perhaps, of his leaving ſo frequently his own Dominions, may be, the Miſunderſtanding which there is between his Serene Electoral Highneſs and his Chapter, an Inſtance of which was very recently given, when the Elector expreſſed his Deſire of celebrating the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, by a Te Deum to be ſung in the Cathedral at Munſter, and by a Diſcharge of the Cannon of that City, it was refuſed him; but, in order to make a Shew of preſerving the Epiſcopal Authority, that Ceremony was performed in the Chapel of a Convent of Friars, where very few People aſſiſted."

Extract of a Letter from Bourdeaux, dated January 15.

"The Accounts we receive from St. Domingo of the Damage done to our Plantations by the late Hurricane, are every Day more diſmal; the Effects of it hath been general all over the Iſland, and the Indigo Plants, though very low, hath ſuffered greatly, which added to the other Misfortunes it hath already ſuſtained, makes the Crop of that Commodity more ſcanty than can be imagined; and it is computed, that the whole Quantity made at this Time does not exceed a Quarter Part of what uſed to be made: They had ſeveral Ships a loading for this and other Ports, but ſo few Goods, that they muſt be detained much longer than uſual, which is the Reaſon that none have lately arrived, though generally expected at this Time, and when they come, I apprehend the Quantity of Goods will be very unequal to the Demand which uſed to be very briſk in the Spring; ſo that upon the Whole, the Price of our American Products muſt keep riſing ſome Time longer."

Extract of a private Letter from Vienna, dated January 8. N. S.

"Since the late Regulation made by the Government to ſuppreſs Vagrants and Beggars, which was very wiſely backed by a Mandate of our Archbiſhop, forbidding the People of his Dioceſe to give them any Alms, we don't ſee any in our Streets, nor in the adjacent Villages, the Officers of the Police having taken up many, and carried them to Workhouſes and Hoſpitals, and the reſt being gone out of the Country, as we ſuppoſe. They now talk at Court of making ſome new Laws to render Robberies leſs frequent, though we can't ſay we are much peſtered with Thieves and Highwaymen in this Part of the Empreſs's Dominions: And after this the Government, as we hear, will conſult about a Scheme to prevent legal Robberies, or fleecing the Subjects according to Law, which has hitherto been too much practiſed; to which End judicial Proceedings are to be abridged, and the Expences of Suits leſſened; it being, in the main, better for a Man to be at once ſtripped of his All on the Highway, than to loſe it at Law, as it often happens, even when his Cauſe is good, and Judgment is given in his Favour; becauſe in the laſt Caſe his Misfortune is aggravated by the Loſs of his Time, &c."

Jan. 20. Thurſday laſt Mary Daily, prayed the Peace againſt Thomas Mears, and ſwore as follows:

"He came bodily through my Room, and I might have been murdered, and no Body the wiſer; and then a Woman came in bodily through the Room: I'll tell you her Name by and by, but I am juſtly in a Hurry. I had a bit of Fire at the Bottom of the Grate, but it would not light a Candle. He called me an old defrauding B——, and then he threatned to knock me down; and I hope your Worſhip will let me have good bodily Bail or Goal for my Life: For I will take a thouſand bodily corporal Oaths, that my Life is in Danger from that Snake there, for a Snake he is."

On Friday laſt a pretty ſingular Inſtance happened to a Gentleman in Weſtminſter, as he was ſtanding at the Door of his own Houſe; a Perſon plainly dreſs'd, with a Box in his Hand, came up to him, and told him that he came from the City, and was deſired to deliver it to him. Upon which the Gentleman anſwered, that he ſuppoſed he was miſtaken, for that he had no Connection in the City; but the Perſon inſiſted upon leaving it, and added, that he was ſure he was not miſtaken; he carried it down into the Kitchen, and took his Leave. Upon opening the Box, there were found a Letter, written in a great Variety of Hands, to prevent a Diſcovery, and two Playhouſe Bills, in which ſomething ſeemed to be wrapp'd: On opening the Bundle, eight Guineas were carefully concealed, and in the Letter was wrote, "Sir, The Incloſed is yours, honeſtly yours, aſk no Queſtions, and you ſhall never know from whom this comes.

In a Letter in one of the Boſton Papers, there is a Computation made, that about Eight Thouſand Perſons will be inoculated in that Town for the Small-Pox, in this Seaſon; and the Letter-Writer computes the Charges, one with another, to be about a Piſtole each; which he ſuppoſes will be a Loſs to their running Currency, of about Eight Thouſand Piſtoles, excluſive of Loſs of Time, Nurſes, &c. as that Sum will fall into the Hands only of Twenty-four Phyſicians, who are no ways concerned in Trade.----It is ſaid, this Computation is of the loweſt Kind; and may ſerve to give an Idea of the deplorable Circumſtances of that Place at preſent.---Have we not Reaſon to rejoice, that whilſt we are not above one Third as numerous as Boſton, we have, on as moderate a Computation as theirs, upwards of Thirty Practitioners of Phyſick amongſt us.

Extract of a Letter from Charleſtown, in South-Carolina, dated April 13, 1752.

"In my laſt I gave you an Account of a Skirmiſh that had happened between the Lower Creek, and the Cherokee Indians, about four Miles out of this Town: We have ſince had ſome farther Inſight into the Affair.

It ſeems that theſe Indians did not come, as was pretended, on a Viſit hither; but the Cherokees, who were twelve in Number (and not eleven, as I ſaid) were out, with a greater Party, a Hunting; the Creeks cut off their Communication with the reſt, and obliged them to fly hither for Safety, and the others purſued, and by that Means came all here.

After the pretended Reconciliation, the Cherokees departed, and the Lower Creeks followed them, and about three Miles out of Town overtook them; but the Cherokees being prepared for Defence, the others ſpoke to them in a friendly Manner about going a Hunting together, and the like, and ſo travelled forward; but the Creeks lagging behind, ſhot down three of the others at the firſt Volley; the reſt fled, one of which was killed in the Chace, and one taken Priſoner; three came back to Town, one of which was ſhot thro' the Arm, and another cut in the Heel, and he that was not wounded is ſent back to the Cherokees, to give Account of the Condition of the other two.

The Upper Creeks, having their Arms taken away, the Night after that whereon the Affair happened, all fled but one, apprehending the Engliſh would take Vengeance on them; but this refuſed to fly, inſiſting, that as he had done no Harm, he apprehended none from them. Next Morning he was honoured with a Scarlet Jacket, laced, and ſent after the reſt, to deſire their Return; four were overtaken and brought back, and, after Aſſurance of Friendſhip, were again diſmiſs'd. We ſeem to apprehend nothing farther from this Affair.

The Winter was pretty ſevere here, having kill'd ſome Orange-Trees, and affected them much, even as far as St. Auguſtine. This Country abounded in Oranges till this Winter was four Years, when a hard Froſt kill'd them all."

The price of passengers or goods, that shall come to Burlington, will be no more per mile than from Bordentown. On Sundays or Mondays in any week, passengers trading up and down the river, or any other manner, whose waggon hire shall amount to Sixteen Shillings, or upwards, shall, upon the first notice, have a waggon, and be transported to the stage boat, which will be ready to receive them at the landing, and is the most handy and convenient of any thereabouts, there being a good wharff to step into the boat. The boat, for the first time, will begin to attend at the Crooked Billet on Tuesday, the 13th day of August, 1751, and the waggon will proceed the day following. Further, if the ice, or any thing else, should at any time prevent the passage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the stage waggon will, if requir'd, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry.
